

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Adkins.

DELEGATE ADKINS: I was never more willing to oblige. I move the previous question.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Adkins, the Chair suggests if you desire to, you may move the previous question on all previous questions which carries us back to the question on the adoption of the Committee Recommendation and it would foreclose any other motions to reconsider. I state that as fair warning to everybody if you desire to make such a motion.

DELEGATE ADKINS: Parliamentary inquiry. You mean in relation to this particular amendment or as to all amendments heretofore adopted?

THE PRESIDENT: All amendments with respect to Committee Recommendations R&P-1 and 2.

DELEGATE ADKINS: I am not prepared to commit that major surgery, but I will move—

THE PRESIDENT: I should have said with the exception of the recommendation which is a special order of business.

DELEGATE ADKINS: I think I shall not be that radical. I think I shall move the question on the amendment now before you.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well.

Delegate Bennett.

DELEGATE BENNETT: Mr. Chairman, I move the previous question on all motions to reconsider in connection with—

THE PRESIDENT: I do not think you can put the motion that way. You can move the previous question on all amending questions, but we already have a motion to move the previous question. I think we will save time by considering it.

DELEGATE BENNETT: Then I move the previous question on all pending questions.

THE PRESIDENT: The motion to order the previous question on all previous pending questions which, as I understand it, is Delegate Bennett's motion for reconsideration of the vote by which Amendment No. 6 was rejected, the question of further action on Amendment No. 6, and then the question of the adoption of Committee Recommendation R&P-1 and R&P-2 except for the section that has been separated and made the special order of business.

For what purpose does Delegate Morgan rise?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, to make a parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDENT: State the inquiry.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Did Delegate Adkins not make a motion for moving the previous question?

THE PRESIDENT: He did, but the motion made by Delegate Bennett was broader and has precedence.

Is Delegate Bennett's motion seconded?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: The motion is seconded. So that there will be no misunderstanding, if the motion is carried, we will proceed without further debate to a vote on the motion to reconsider the vote by which Amendment No. 6 was rejected. If that motion were carried we would proceed without further debate to consider the adoption of Amendment No. 6.

Following action on that, we would consider without further debate the adoption of Committee Recommendation R&P-1 and 2 as amended except for section 1.17 which is a special order of business.

For what purpose does Delegate White rise?

DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. Chairman, we ask you to keep cool as we decide.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dukes, for what purpose do you rise?

DELEGATE DUKES: Parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDENT: State the inquiry.

DELEGATE DUKES: When would it be appropriate to move to make another matter a special order of business on Tuesday?

THE PRESIDENT: I cannot tell you unless I know what the other matter is.

DELEGATE DUKES: The other matter is the sixty-sixty vote we had on Amendment No. 2.

THE PRESIDENT: If this motion carries, that motion, I take it, would be out of order. This motion takes precedence. You can announce your intention and that is all.

For what purpose does Delegate Johnson rise?
